Pastor Dan began a new series this weekend called "For Now" and taught us about waiting, or as he called it, "The Land Between." In the message, he shared that "the land between" is fertile ground for six things: complaint, meltdown, God's provision, God's discipline, for growth and for trust to grow.

1. When God asks you to wait, which of these six things do you identify with most?

2. Are you currently in a season of waiting? What kind of fertile ground are you walking in now?

Let's take a few minutes to see what God has to say about each of those six types of "fruit" listed above. Read the verses and write down what God shows you.

1. Complaint - Philippians 2:14-16

2. Meltdown - Romans 8:28

3. God's Provision - Galatians 6:9

4. God's Discipline - Hebrews 12:11

5. Growth - 2 Corinthians 4:16-18

6. Trust to grow - Psalm 62:8

As we close today, take a few minutes and say the following prayer. God, I am so thankful that you are a God who will use every season for my good. Even though I cannot always see what you are doing, I can trust you. Lord thank you for loving me. God make my heart fertile to see Your hand at work in my life, help me to grow in my faith and grow in spiritual maturity. I love you Lord and ask all of this in Your Son's precious name. Amen.
