Heart Crew Homework

For the week of January 25 & 26, 2023

MY STORY

1. Has God ever called you to something bigger than yourself? How did you respond—did you step forward in faith or hesitate? What happened as a result, and what did you learn from the experience?

2. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. This past weekend, Pastor Dan walked us through a conversation God had with Moses regarding what God wanted Moses to do. Let's revisit that conversation and write down in what ways do you see yourself in his story?
Exodus 3:1-22, 4:1-17
 - a. How do you feel about the idea that God may be calling you to step into something new or challenging? What emotions or thoughts come up when you consider God's call on your life, especially when it feels overwhelming or uncertain?

2. Let's look at Peter's story as we consider God's call and how it can stretch us. Luke 5:1-11 How does this passage speak to you about God's call in moments of discouragement or exhaustion?

- a. Peter initially felt unworthy, saying, "Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinner." Yet, he overcame those feelings and chose to follow Jesus. Reflect on a time when feelings of inadequacy or fear held you back from God's invitation to join him in doing something amazing. How did you overcome those emotions, and what can we learn from Peter's decision to follow Jesus despite his doubts?

3. Going back to Moses' story which of his excuses (I'm not enough, I don't know enough, what if I fail, I can't) do you relate to the most? How does God's response to Moses encourage you?
 - a. Are there any negative thoughts or "soundtracks" keeping you from stepping into God's calling? If so, what are they? Let's replace them with God's truth and rewrite the soundtracks in our minds.

Jeremiah 31:3
Psalms 23:1-6
2 Corinthians 12:9
Isaiah 41:10
Ephesians 2:10

 - b. Which of these truths speaks most directly to the negative "soundtrack" you've been struggling with? How can you begin to replace that old narrative with God's truth in your daily life?

4. God promised Moses that He would be with him and would equip him to accomplish the task. In the same way, when God calls us, He promises to be with us and has equipped us with His Spirit to give us everything we need. Let's explore scriptures that show how the Holy Spirit equips us:

Galatians 5:22-23

Corinthians 12:4-7

Romans 12:6-8

2 Timothy 1:7

- a. How does knowing that the Holy Spirit equips you with character, gifts, and power change the way you view what God is calling you to do?
5. We can look at the story of Moses and see that while he did incredible things, at its core, God called him to reconnect with his family and show them how much God loves them. In the same way, God may be calling you to something that seems simple but is deeply meaningful. Where might God be inviting you to step in and show His love in a way that's already within your reach?

Take it Home

Moses wrestled with God, questioning whether he was truly capable of fulfilling the task set before him. This kind of wrestling is a natural part of faith—when we feel unqualified, uncertain, or even afraid. But what matters most is that we bring our doubts to God rather than running from His call. Just as He assured Moses of His presence and equipped him for the journey, God promises to be with us, providing everything we need if we choose to trust Him and walk forward in obedience.
